6. Administration/Honorary Treasurer's Report

Bar	£258,226 - 2019	£274,553 – 2018
Memberships	£3125 – 2019	£8102 - 2018

Members need chasing regarding their membership renewals. From 1st June everyone will be asked to show their current membership cards at the bar in order to obtain their drinks discount.

Players will be reminded that if they have not paid by 31st May they will not be available for selection as they will not be insured.

7. Lease and Licence

Dave Cresswell has responded to the Council and agreed in principle to a new lease to correspond with the new licence. The lease/licence applications have been submitted and include all of our additional activities.

8. Bar/Pavillion

Repairs are taking place to the decking and the artificial grass is being replaced.

We have amended the procedure for the booking of certain funerals, ie funerals that take place on Fridays or later in the day.

We are a sports club and do actively encourage other sports teams to use our facilities, however we made need to adopt a different policy when certain bookings are being requested.

9. Catering

This is on-going and we are making some progress and are in the process of arranging another meeting, however it is bank holiday soon and then the chef is scheduled to be on holiday, so arranging this at present is a little difficult.

Simon Wrigley has volunteered to help out during the Chef's leave, he will discuss with Dave Cresswell after the meeting a proposed menu and the times that he could work.

10. Ground

Lancashire 2nd XI are playing here soon and we are tidying the ground in order to showcase BCC.

11. Development at Mossom Lane

Dave Cresswell and Alan Cross are going to Mossom Lane on Friday. The sightscreen situation is still on-going as our previous option didn't quite work out.

12. Cricket

The Ladies team had a fabulous result at the weekend and the committee extend their congratulations to them.

The 1st XI have 2 cup matches coming up:

Away to Woodhouse in the 2nd round of the Lancashire Cup – 2nd June

Home to Longridge in the 3rd round of the National Knockout – 9th June

13. Lancashire County Cricket Clu

Nothing to report.

14. Squash

Pete Campbell is chasing membership renewals.

The 1st team finished in a relegation position but may be able to stay up.

We need some young players to join the club and we are looking for players to act as potential additional coaches.

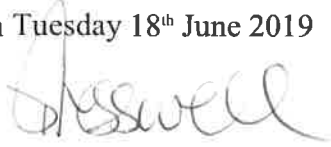

15. AOB

Staff Uniforms – Simon Wrigley has supplied a catalogue and we may have to make the decision. It was also noted that certain staff members are eating behind the bar and that others are using their mobile phones.

Advertising for the beer festival will start soon.
